DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species 1, an image forming apparatus with a detector detecting media width.

Species 1 contains the following subspecies:

Species 1a, analog processing circuit

Species 1b, Digital processing circuit

Species 2, an image forming device with an optical state detector to detect a conveyance belt.

Species 2a, detection of whether the belt is dirty or has blot.

Species 2b, detecting of whether the belt is damaged.

Species 3 an image forming apparatus with a temperature sensor.

Species 3a, control of drive roller based on detected result.

Species 3b, control of drive waveform applied to head based on detected result.

Species 3c, control of drive waveform applied to carriage drive part based on detection result of detector.

Species 4, an image forming apparatus with a sensor detecting a kind of recording medium.

Species 5, color density levels of component parts other than the conveyance part are different from a color density level of the conveyance part.

Species 6, an image forming apparatus that controls when printing is performed based on a state detector detecting non-presence of the recording medium.

Various subspecies related to the position and arrangement of the state detector(s) are shown.

Species 6a, fig. 35

Species 6b, fig. 40

Species 6c, fig. 41

Species 6d, fig. 44

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. If applicant elects species one of species 1, 2, 3 or 6, applicant must elect one of the subspecies therein. For example, if applicant elects species 6, applicant must elect one of sub-species 6a, 6b, 6c or 6d. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, each species lacks the technical features, pointed out above, of the other species.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
